COURSE DESCRIPTION

Students will be introduced to a method of "Science/Evidence" based policing. Students will demonstrate the risks of relying solely on human factors by evaluating real-life police interrogation case studies and through a series of group breakout sessions. Students will research assigned case studies and present their knowledge and comprehension as it relates to Miranda. Students will demonstrate their knowledge in applying these learning modules in the form of non-accusatorial interrogations with the instructor.

A laptop / tablet device is encouraged for this course.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

This class is open to all sworn & civilian investigators, Parole & Probation Agents, Arson Investigators, Polygraphers, Background Investigators, Internal Affairs Investigators & Patrol Officers - If you are conducting interviews in-person, or over the phone, this class is for you! This course is a continuous curriculum for career education.
